

Précis of Thanksgiving Sunday 2019 Sermon by Rev. George C Vais

In addition to speaking about the many things that we can all be thankful to God for at this time of Thanksgiving, Rev Vais used the passage in 1 Corinthians 16:13 – 24 to remind us that our faith requires action. He used three specific examples from his personal experience to show how the word of God directs us first, to see people, not just as numbers or clients but as people with particular needs, then to see ourselves as ministers who need to be equipped to undertake ministry and finally to be willing to step out and take some risks to serve as a disciple of Jesus.
